Honorable Allen Dulles
Director Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D. C.

Honorable Sir:

On May 6th I wrote to the Honorable Henry A Byroade, with regard to the Eichmann matter, a copy of which I also sent to you, and to which I have not as yet received a reply. It surprised me greatly that I had not heard from Mr. Byroade considering the importance of the matter involved.

On June 25th I have again written to Mr. Byroade concerning this vital problem, a copy of which is enclosed herewith.

I would very much appreciate your assistance in attempting to learn and to advise me as to why he did not answer my letter.

Mr. John Raymond, Assistant Legal Adviser of Department of State, was kind enough to return the documents, pictures, etc., which I sent to your office. I was also disappointed in his reply. I cannot understand why this matter was referred to his office as I still feel that your department is the logical one to handle this matter properly to achieve the necessary results. Enclosed herewith you will find a copy of my letter to Mr. Byroade.

Thanking you again for your kindness and cooperation and anticipating your early and favorable response, I am,

Sincerely yours,

Mirrer Yeshiva Central Institute
